

General Specifications

Handheld

- Unit can be ordered with/without voice control, and with/without 900mHZ spread spectrum modem
  - modem antenna is built into the Handheld enclosure
- Dual recognition processors to enhance speech recognition accuracy
- Unlimited word/phrase recognition capability
- Continuous voice recognition
- Concert quality microphone/headset
- The headset/microphone has ANC (Automatic Noise Cancellation) capability to reduce
  - ambient noise from interfering with the actual voice commands.
- Practice mode for word/phrase training
- Backlit LCD displays status and provides menu controls
- Easy, 4 button user interface for scrolling, selecting, and entering
- Standard 12 volt automotive input
- Removeable, 5 cell, NiMh, battery pack
- Build in battery charger, with cigarette lighter adapter
- Audio feedback via the headset provides positive feedback to
  - the operator that the command has been carried out.
- The unique voice print for the individual operators is stored in system memory.
- One year warranty on parts and workmanship

Relay Box +

- 8 relays capable of completing 10A circuits
- Serial bus architecture allows expandability
  - boxes are simply daisy chained together for 16, 24...relays
- Unit is capable of monitoring 4, external, signal inputs
- Gold plated electrical contacts
- Unit is cabled directly, via DIN connector, to the handheld
- To control relays wirelessly an SPU is required
- Die cast, aluminum enclosure, pre-painted black
- Amber LED

SPU

- Unit simply plugs into CMS's data port
- 900mHZ spread spectrum modem, with built in antenna communicates wirelessly to handheld
- Polycarbonate, gasketed enclosure
- Unit is capable of monitoring 3, external, signal inputs
- Two, 1A latching relays for operating external devices
- Amber LED